Summary

I am an experienced developer with a focus on web solutions. I primarily use React for front-end development and work with server-side JavaScript using Node.js on the back-end. I also manage databases, including PostgreSQL (SQL) and MongoDB (NoSQL). You can explore my projects on my personal website: <https://portfolio-leo-chi.vercel.app/>. Additionally, I have five years of continuous English training from the Brasas English Course and hold a higher education degree.
